

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS PROBATE / JUVENILE DIVISION
GEAUGA COUNTY, OHIO - JUDGE TIMOTHY J. GRENDALL
Courthouse Annex, 2nd Floor 231 Main Street, Suite 200
Chardon, Ohio 44024
Telephone No. 440-279-1830
Fax Probation: 440-285-5025 Fax Court: 440-285-8751

COURT POLICY REGARDING COURT EMPLOYEES PROVIDING LEGAL ADVICE

Ohio law and Codes of Conduct prohibit court employees, including deputy clerks, Resource Center staff, and Help Center staff from providing legal advice.

Deputy clerks may review paperwork that you present for filing to determine whether you have: (i) provided all required information, including required names, initials, and addresses, (ii) signed where required, and (iii) filed all paperwork, required by law, including the local court rules, such as required affidavits or instructions for service.

However, Deputy Clerks cannot tell you whether the paperwork that you present to the Clerk's Office, or the content of that paperwork, is adequate to satisfy your needs or intentions or satisfies all legal requirements, including the local court rules.

If you need legal advice, you should contact your attorney, otherwise call the Geauga County Bar Association at 440-286-7160 or the Legal Aid Society of Cleveland at 888-817-3777.

Help Center - The Court has established a Help Center. While the Help Center staff cannot provide you with legal advice, if you are not represented by an attorney, then the Help Center can assist you by providing general legal information and providing access to legal forms. A deputy clerk or Resource Center staff can give you additional information concerning the Help Center.

RESOURCE CENTER
INSTRUCTION SHEET FOR PRO SE FILINGS
[JFS Case]

[For Nonparent Use – Motion for Custody or Companionship Rights]

WARNING

This Instruction Sheet provides you with a brief overview of the subject matter. It may not provide you with all the information that you require to be fully informed of the law that is applicable to your case. While the Resource Center can provide you with a limited amount of information, the Resource Center cannot provide you with legal advice, and this Instruction Sheet is not intended to provide you with legal advice that is applicable to your case. You must decide how to best use the information and instructions provided without the benefit of legal advice unless you retain an attorney. If you decide to proceed without an attorney, then understand that Ohio law provides that you are presumed to have knowledge of the law and of correct legal procedure, and are held to the same standard of all other litigants who are represented by an attorney.

Background - The Resource Center cannot provide you with any legal advice regarding the selection or preparation of legal forms. The Court's Help Center offers a few legal forms and information sheets for your consideration, which are included in this package. Before selecting, completing, and filing the legal forms offered to you in this package, the Resource Center recommends that you first seek legal advice from an attorney of your choosing or seek assistance from the Court's Help Center.

This package includes a Motion. The primary purpose of this Motion is for a Nonparent to obtain a custody order or in the alternative a companionship time order in a legal proceeding that was started by Job & Family Services. A Motion should be selected if there is a legal proceeding in this Court regarding the minor child, no matter how long ago that legal proceeding was initiated.

General Instructions

1. All forms must be typed or completed with blue or black ink, and the printing must be legible.
2. The Motions offered in this package is intended for a Nonparent who has an interest in a minor child and seeks a court order for custody or companionship time in a legal proceeding stated by Job & Family Services. If you are a Parent and you decide to file a Motion regarding custody or parenting time (i.e., "visitation" rights), then the Resource Center has another package for a Parent.
3. Certain documents must be notarized. Do not sign any document that must be notarized unless you are signing before a notary, including a deputy clerk, who is authorized to serve as a notary.
4. Do not present for filing any document in this package without first presenting to a deputy clerk (1) a government-issued photographic identification (e.g., a current driver's license or passport), and

(2) evidence of current mailing address (e.g., recent utility bill, bank statement account, property tax bill, voter registration card).<sup>1</sup>

5. Be prepared to pay a court cost deposit, which should not exceed $50. A deputy clerk will accept cash, personal check, or credit card. If you are an “indigent,” then you may not be required to pay the court cost deposit. In that case prepare and file the Financial Disclosure Form (ODP-206R), together with the Motion. A deputy clerk can supply you with that form.<sup>2</sup>

The Forms

1. Motions

- a. Motion to Intervene – Before you may file a Motion for Custody in a JFS case, you must first obtain permission from the Court to file that motion. You do so by first filing a Motion to Intervene (Form GC Juv 020B.1) which essentially is asking the Court’s permission to file your Motion for Custody (Form GC Juv 020B). Civ.R. 24(C) requires that an unsigned copy of the Motion for Custody must be attached to the Motion to Intervene. The Court may have a separate hearing to determine whether the Motion to Intervene is granted.
- b. Motion for Custody – You must prepare the Motion for Custody (Form GC Juv 020B). The Clerk may permit you to file at the same time both (1) a signed Motion to Intervene with an unsigned copy of the Motion for Custody attached, and (2) a signed Motion for Custody. However, the Court must first grant the Motion to Intervene (which may require a hearing) before the filing of the Motion for Custody is deemed effective.

Key Notes

- If you are unsure whether the pending legal proceeding is a private custody case or a JFS case, a deputy clerk can provide you with that information.
- DO NOT insert a minor child’s name in the Motion. Only insert the child’s initials where appropriate. You will provide the Court with the minor child’s name and other pertinent information by preparing and filing a confidential document as explained below.
- Supporting Facts – It is critical that you describe in detail the specific facts, in paragraph 3 of the Motion to Intervene (Form GC Juv 020B.1) and in paragraph 3 of the Motion for Custody (Form GC Juv 020B), which support your claim for a need to change custody or companionship time.

WARNING - The Court may deny the motion to intervene.<sup>3</sup> A grandparent or other family member does not have an automatic right to be a party to a child custody proceeding. The Court may be more willing to grant a motion for intervention seeking child custody if the nonparent has a significant history of caring for the child. Generally, the nonparent must be able to prove that the nonparent has undertaken care and control of the child in the absence of parental supervision or parental permission and the child has relied upon that nonparent for support. Examples would be if you have custody of a child under (i) Custody Power of attorney, (ii) Caretaker Authorization Affidavit, or (iii) Relinquishment Agreement.

- Emergency Order – If you want the Court to issue an emergency custody order, then sure to check the box requesting an emergency order and the type of order (i.e., custody or companionship time).
- Generally, a Nonparent must first obtain the Court's permission to be a party to a pending litigation before filing a motion or custody or companionship time. Thus, a Motion to Intervene must be filed.

2. INSTRUCTIONS FOR SERVICE - Form GC JF 7.0 (Request for Service).

Key Notes

- A deputy clerk must provide all persons, who have a direct interest in the matter and the minor child,<sup>4</sup> a copy of both Motions, which may include attorneys and a guardian ad litem. This form must be prepared and filed by you in order to give the deputy clerk the necessary information and directions. If you are unsure who are the parties or their attorneys, then a deputy clerk should be able to provide you with their names and addresses.

3. ALLEGATION AFFIDAVIT – Form GC Juv 038 (Affidavit)

Key Notes

- If you are requesting in the Motion for Custody that the Court issue an emergency (ex parte) custody or companionship time order, then you should prepare and file with that Motion an affidavit that sets forth specific facts, which support your allegation that there is an emergency regarding the minor child and thus the Court should issue an immediate emergency order.

4. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION – Form GC JF 5.0 (Disclosure of Confidential Child Information).

Key Notes

- The purpose of this form is to keep confidential the identity of minor children. Accordingly, this form is not a public record and will be kept in a separate confidential file.

5. STATEMENT OF UNDERSTANDING

Key Notes

- This form is required by R.C. 2151.353(A)(3)

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT
[Juvenile Rule 19]

1. JuvR. 2(Y) allows the court, in its discretion, to designate a person as a party to a juvenile court proceeding. The juvenile court may rely upon Civ.R. 24 when permitting a person, who is not automatically included as a party under Juv.R. 2(Y), to intervene in a court proceeding, and required that person to file a motion to intervene in a court proceeding if that third-party has in interest in the matter. MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT
[Juvenile Rule 19]

1. R.C. 2151.353 allows the Court to “award legal custody of the child to either parent or to any other person who, prior to the dispositional hearing, files a motion requesting legal custody of the child or is identified as a proposed legal custodian in a complaint or motion filed prior to the dispositional hearing by any party to the proceedings. A person identified in a complaint or motion filed by a party to the proceedings as a proposed legal custodian shall be awarded legal custody of the child only if the person identified signs a statement of understanding for legal custody . . .” Also see In re P.B., 2021-Ohio-414 (12th App. Dist – Warren Cty.)

2. Juv. R. 34(D)(3) permits the Court to grant custody to a nonparent, stating:

If a child is adjudicated an abused, neglected, or dependent child, the court may make any of the following orders of disposition: . . . (3) Award legal custody of the child to either parent or to any other person who, prior to the dispositional hearing, files a motion requesting legal custody; . . . Also see In Re C.B. 2018-Ohio-5303 (December 26,2018 – 5th App. Dist.)

3. R.C. 2151.231 permits the Court to grant child support to a person having custody of a minor child, including a request for a paternity determination.

4. While the Ohio Revised Code does not specifically grant grandparents companionship or visitation rights when the Court determines that a minor child is abused, neglected, or dependent and grants JFS custody of a minor child, JFS has adopted regulations that allow for companionship or visitation rights to be granted to grandparents by administrative order in some circumstances (if the child custody is temporary) if that is in the best interest of the minor child – see Ohio Adm. Code 5101:2-42-92(D).

STATEMENT OF UNDERSTANDING
[R.C. 2151.353(A)(3)]

1. I/We intend to become the legal custodian of the Child(ren), and I/We am/are able to assume legal responsibility for the care and supervision of the Child(ren).
2. I/We understand that legal custody of the Child(ren) is intended to be permanent in nature and that I/We will be responsible as the custodian for the Child(ren) until a child reaches the age of majority (i.e. age 18). Responsibility as custodian for the child(ren) shall continue beyond the age of majority if, at the time a child reaches the age of majority, that child is pursuing a diploma granted by the board of education or other governing authority, successful completion of the curriculum of any high school, successful completion of an individualized education program developed for the student by any high school, or an age and schooling certificate. Responsibility beyond the age of majority shall terminate when a child ceases to continuously pursue such an education, completes such an education, or is excused from such an education under standards adopted by the state board of education, whichever occurs first.
3. I/We understand that the parents of the Child(ren) have residual parental rights, privileges, and responsibilities, including, but not limited to, the privilege of reasonable visitation, consent to adoption, the privilege to determine the child's religious affiliation, and the responsibility for support.
4. I/We understand that I/We must be present in court for the dispositional hearing in order to affirm that I/We intend to become legal custodian, to affirm that I/We understand the effect of the custodianship before the court, and that I/We will answer any questions that the court or any parties to the case may have.
