COURT POLICY REGARDING COURT EMPLOYEES PROVIDING LEGAL ADVICE

Ohio law and Codes of Conduct prohibit court employees, including deputy clerks, Resource Center staff, and Help Center staff from providing legal advice.

Deputy clerks may review paperwork that you present for filing to determine whether you have: (i) provided all required information, including required names, initials, and addresses, (ii) signed where required, and (iii) filed all paperwork, required by law, including the local court rules, such as required affidavits or instructions for service.

However, Deputy Clerks cannot tell you whether the paperwork that you present to the Clerk's Office, or the content of that paperwork, is adequate to satisfy your needs or intentions or satisfies all legal requirements, including the local court rules.

If you need legal advice, you should contact your attorney, otherwise call the Geauga County Bar Association at 440-286-7160 or the Legal Aid Society of Cleveland at 888-817-3777.

Help Center - The Court has established a Help Center. While the Help Center staff cannot provide you with legal advice, if you are not represented by an attorney, then the Help Center can assist you by providing general legal information and providing access to legal forms. A deputy clerk or Resource Center staff can give you additional information concerning the Help Center.

RESOURCE CENTER
INSTRUCTION SHEET FOR PRO SE FILINGS
[Companionship Time]
[For Nonparent Use – Complaint]

WARNING

This Instruction Sheet provides you with a brief overview of the subject matter. It may not provide you with all the information that you require to be fully informed of the law that is applicable to your case. While the Resource Center can provide you with a limited amount of information, the Resource Center cannot provide you with legal advice, and this Instruction Sheet is not intended to provide you with legal advice that is applicable to your case. You must decide how to best use the information and instructions provided without the benefit of legal advice unless you retain an attorney.

Background - The Resource Center cannot provide you with any legal advice regarding the selection or preparation of legal forms. The Court's Help Center offers a few legal forms and information sheets for your consideration, which are included in this package. Before selecting, completing, and filing the legal forms offered to you in this package, the Resource Center recommends that you first seek legal advice from an attorney of your choosing or seek assistance from the Court's Help Center.

This package includes a Complaint. The primary purpose of this Complaint is for a Nonparent to obtain custody of a child(ren) or companionship time in the alternative. A Complaint should be selected if there is no legal proceeding in this Court regarding the minor child. If this Court already has a legal proceeding concerning the custody or companionship time (i.e., "visitation rights") of the minor child, no matter how long ago that legal proceeding was initiated, then a Motion should be selected.

General Instructions

1. All forms must be typed or completed with blue or black ink, and the printing must be legible.
2. The Complaint offered in this package are intended for a Nonparent who has an interest in a minor child and seeks a companionship time order. If you are a Parent and you decide to file a Complaint regarding custody or parenting time (i.e., "visitation" rights), then the Resource Center has another package for a Parent.
3. Certain documents must be notarized. Do not sign any document that must be notarized unless you are signing before a notary, including a deputy clerk, who is authorized to serve as a notary.
4. Do not present for filing any document in this package without first presenting to a deputy clerk (1) a government-issued photographic identification (e.g., a current driver's license or passport), and (2) evidence of current mailing address (e.g., recent utility bill, bank statement account, property tax bill, voter registration card).¹

¹ Rule 10 of the Geauga County Juvenile Court Local Rules.

5. Be prepared to pay a court cost deposit, which will not exceed $100. A deputy clerk will accept cash, personal check, or credit card. If you are an “indigent,” then you may not be required to pay the court cost deposit. In that case prepare and file the Financial Disclosure Form (ODP-206R), together with the Complaint. A deputy clerk can supply you with that form.²

The Forms

1. Complaint – Form GC Juv 026 (Complaint for Companionship Time), if the Nonparent seeks a companionship time.

Key Notes

- DO NOT insert a minor child’s name in the Complaint. Only insert the child’s initials where appropriate. You will provide the Court with the minor child’s name and other pertinent information by preparing and filing a confidential document as explained below.

2. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION – Form GC JF 5.0 (Disclosure of Confidential Child Information).

Key Notes

- The purpose of this form is to keep confidential the identity of a minor child. Accordingly, this form is not a public record and will be kept in a separate confidential file.

3. IDENTITY OF NECESSARY PARTIES - Form GC JF 5.1 (Identity of Necessary Parties).

Key Notes

The purpose of this form is to inform the Court of all necessary parties that are required by Juv. R. 2(Y). Necessary parties include the parents of minor child(ren) and if applicable (1) a guardian of the child(ren), (ii) a legal custodian if the child(ren) are not living with a parent, (iii) a guardian ad litem, and possibly other persons.

4. JURISDICTION AFFIDAVIT – Form GC JF 1.0 (Jurisdiction Affidavit).

Key Notes

- The purpose of this form is to alert the Court to other legal proceedings concerning the minor child, whether the legal proceeding is in another Ohio court or that of another State. Ohio law and the Court’s Local Rules require that this form be prepared and filed whenever a new legal proceeding is initiated in this Court.

² Rule 5 of the Geauga County Juvenile Court Local Rules.

5. INSTRUCTIONS FOR SERVICE - Form GC JF 7.0 (Request for Service).

Key Notes

- A deputy clerk must provide all persons, who have a direct interest in the matter and the minor child,³ a summons and copy of the Complaint. Those persons should be identified either in (i) form GC JF 5.0 (Disclosure of Confidential Child Information) or (ii) paragraph seven of the Complaint. This form must be prepared and filed in order to give the deputy clerk the necessary information and directions.
- If the address of an interested person is unknown, then you must arrange for that person to be notified by “publication” of the summons and a copy of the Complaint.
 - Form GC JF 3.1 (Affidavit for Service by Publication) – you must prepare and file this form together with Form GC JF 7.0 (Request for Service) if the address of an interested person is unknown. If you select publication by the Court’s website, then prepare the top portion (including the person’s name and last known address) of form GC JF 3.2A – Court’s Website Publication Notice. The clerk will insert the hearing information.
 - Note that at the bottom of Form GC JF 3.1 (Affidavit for Service by Publication) you must select whether “publication” should be made by newspaper or by the Court’s website. Newspaper publication will have a significant cost while website publication does not.
 - If you select newspaper publication, then you must prepare and file Form GC JF 3.2 (Instructions for Service by Newspaper Publication).

6. ALLEGATION AFFIDAVIT – Form GC Juv 038 (Affidavit)

Key Notes

- If you are requesting in the Complaint that the Court issue an emergency (ex parte) custody or companionship time order, then you should prepare and file with the Complaint an affidavit that sets forth specific facts, which support your allegation that there is an emergency regarding the minor child and thus the Court should issue an immediate emergency order.

Help Center Information Sheets

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT
[Juv. R. 19]

1. Ohio is the Home State for determination of child custody under R.C. §3127.15(A) and for determination of child support as defined in R.C. §3115.102.
2. This Court has exclusive original jurisdiction to determine child custody under R.C. §2151.23(A)(2).
3. This Court has exclusive original jurisdiction to determine child support under R.C. §2151.23(A)(11) and R.C. §2151.231.
4. Venue in this Court is proper under R.C. 2151.27(D) and Juv. R. 10(A).
5. This Court may exercise its jurisdiction to determine child custody and parenting time under R.C. §2151.23(F)(1) and accordance with R.C. §3109.04.
6. This Court shall exercise its jurisdiction to determine child support under R.C. §2151.23(F)(2), and accordance with R.C. §3109.05 and R.C. Chapter 3119.
7. Troxel v. Granville, 530 U.S. 57, 120 S. Ct.2054, 147 L.Ed.2d 49 (2000), recognized that a parent has a “fundamental liberty right” that is guaranteed by the 14th Amendment to determine the custody, care, and nurturing of a child. See also Harrold v. Collier, 107 Ohio St.3d 44, 2005-Ohio-5334, 836 N.E.2d. 1165 regarding Troxel, and its applicability to R.C. 3109.11 and 3109.12 and In re Hockstock, 98 Ohio St.3d 238, 781 N.E.2d 971 (2002).

R.C. 3109.12(A) and (B) permits the Court to awarded companionship time to maternal grandparents or other maternal relative if the mother is unmarried, and to the father if paternity is finally acknowledged and to the paternal grandparents or other paternal relates; provided that the grant of companionship time is in the child’s best interest. In determining the child’s “best interest” the Court shall consider the factors listed in R.C. 3109.051(D). See In re A.B., 2019-Ohio-1940 (3rd App. Dist.).
9. R.C. 3109.11 permits the Court to award companionship time to the parents or other relatives of a deceased parent.
10. R.C. 3109.051(D)(15) provides that the Court shall consider the wishes and concerns of the child's parents, as expressed by them to the court. See In Re Kaiser, 2004-Ohio-7208, 2004 WL 3090224 (7th Dist. 2004), where the Court determined that a judge must give heavier weight to the wishes and concerns of the parent as compared to any other factor listed in R.C. 3109.051(D).
